

POLICEMAN PUT OFF FORCE IN '92 BACK IN UNIFORM

Ousted in Brooklyn Before
Consolidation, but Can Retire in Three Years.

Sixteen years ago Richard Dillon, a policeman in the Brooklyn City Department, was tried on charges of shooting a prisoner in the leg and dismissed from the department after being found guilty of unnecessary assault. Dillon had served just one year as an officer when he was "booked."

To-day Police Commissioner Bingham reinstated Dillon and assigned him to the Far Rockaway station, his duty to begin to-night. Dillon waived claims to back salary, but he re-enters the Police Department of Greater New York with all the other advantages accorded to a veteran of sixteen years of service. In three years he will retire and may accept a pension of $700, half his yearly salary. The case is without precedent in New York police history.

When Dillon was dismissed the Brooklyn city police had no connection with the department of New York. When the two departments were consolidated in 1899 Dillon was not a policeman, had not filed claims against the department of Brooklyn, and absolutely no provisions were made for the reinstatement of dismissed Brooklyn policemen to the Greater New York force. Dillon was employed in a mercantile pursuit and a policeman's life seemed far from his mind.

Last year a bill passed the New York State Legislature empowering the Commissioner of Police to reopen any case of a dismissed officer, with the Mayor assenting, when application had been made for a hearing by the officer discharged.

On the advice of friends in Brooklyn, Dillon lost no time in formally seeking a reopening of his case, charging that injustice was done to him when he was dismissed sixteen years ago. Deputy Commissioner Hanson, who is supposed to pass on matters having legal phases, went over the papers and recommended that Dillon be reinstated. Dillon then waived claims to salary, and will be entitled to wear three service stripes right away.

It was also announced at Commissioner Bingham's office that Traffic Sergeant Edward E. Xenodochius, who earned considerable attention by his arrest of Nanan Franko, the day of the Catholic Anniversary parade, would be detailed to the Centre Street Court. Charges were filed against Xenodochius by Franko.

AFTER THE HOTEL WOLCOTT.

George T. Stockham said to-day he expected to complete a deal to-morrow for the purchase of the lease and furnishings of the Hotel Wolcott, at Fifth avenue and Thirty-first street, owned by the Breslin estate. Mr. Stockham was succeeded Monday as manager of the Hotel Breslin by E. Sweet, formerly manager of the Hotel Walton, Philadelphia.

MORE INDICTMENTS AGAINST M'INTYRE

Four Returned as Former Broker Appears to Answer to the First.

Thomas A. McIntyre, the former Wall street broker, and head of the lately defunct firm of T. A. McIntyre & Company, was arraigned before Judge Roosevelt in Part I. of General Sessions to-day to answer the indictment that was returned last week, charging him with the grand larceny of securities valued at $5,000, which had been entrusted to his care by Mrs. Helen Sedgwick, a customer from Hartford, Conn.

Just as he reached the Criminal Courts Building, coming from the sanitarium where he is now staying, the Grand Jury returned four more indictments alleging grand larceny in the first and second degrees against McIntyre and one of his late partners, George C. Ryan, of Syracuse. The specific charges in these latter indictments were not given out, as Ryan has not been placed under arrest.

Through his lawyer, George L. Lewis, of No. 42 Broadway, McIntyre pleaded not guilty to all the charges, with the customary leave to alter or withdraw his pleas by June 10. Judge Roosevelt continued the present bail of $5,000 in the first indictment and increased it to $10,000 for each of the newer indictments, making the total bond $29,000. McIntyre renewed his bond for the increased amount and left the court with his lawyer.

JOHNSON IN NEW ENGLAND.

Prospect of Four New Hampshire
Delegates for Minnesota.

CONCORD, N. H., May 27.—The Democratic State Convention promises to develop a fight to-day. Although it has been agreed that no effort should be made to instruct the Bryanites have decided to demand a declaration for the Nebraska should they see any chance of success. Failing in the Resolution Committee they will try to elect four Bryan delegates.

The opposition leaders declare that should they win the delegation, they will support Johnson at Denver until he wins out or his domination becomes an impossibility. They believe him to be the more available candidate, at least now.

The indications point to a victory for the anti-Bryan faction.

Mr. Abramson's Basso to Sing at Metropolitan.

BY SYLVESTER RAWLING.

ATTI-CASAZZA has engaged Enzo Rozzano, basso of Mr. Abramson's Italian Grand Opera Company, now at the Metropolitan Theatre, to sing at the Metropolitan Opera House next season. A contract for three years has been signed by them. "Cavalleria" and "Pagliacci" were repeated at the American Theatre last night. Desana again scored as Santuzza and Samoilov as Canio and Aracangeli as Tonio stirred the audience. Pacini was good both as Alfio and Silvio. Giaccone was Turiddu and Canzio was Lola. Ardizzone again was Nedda.

Dorr to Lecture Before Sinn Fein.

Frank Dorr, of the Irish Industrial Development Association, will read a paper to-night before the New York Sinn Fein Society in the Blue Room of the Nineteenth Ward Bank Building, Fifty-seventh street and Third avenue, on "The Possibilities of Irish Industries in America."

WORLD WANTS WORK WONDERS

BEWARE OF IMITATIONS

Cheap Substitutes and "Just As Good As."

Unscrupulous dealers, mindful only of profit and caring nothing for the health of their patrons, are offering for sale low grade, impure whiskey which they tell you is as "good as Duffy's."

It is a cheap concoction and fraud, intended to deceive the people. Of course, when a remedy has been before the public so long, has been prescribed and used by the best doctors and in all the prominent hospitals, and has carried the blessing of health into so many thousands of homes as DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY has, imitations are bound to arise. But they can imitate the bottle and label only—no one can imitate the contents.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey is an absolutely pure distillation of malted grain, great care being used to have every kernel thoroughly malted, thus destroying the germ and producing a predigested liquid food in the form of a malt essence which is the most effective tonic stimulant and invigorator known to science; softened by warmth and moisture, its palatability and freedom from injurious substances render it so that it can be retained by the most sensitive stomach.

Any firm that will sell imitation or substitution goods will sell impure drugs. The firm that is dishonest in one thing would not hesitate to be dishonest in another. Whenever you see imitation and substitution goods offered for sale by a firm, beware of anything and everything put up by that firm. You endanger your own life and the lives of your family and friends by dealing with them.

BEWARE OF FRAUDS!

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey

is sold in sealed bottles only—never in bulk. A fac-simile of the genuine bottle, full size, is printed here so that you may easily recognize it. It is our own patented bottle—round, amber colored, and with the name "Duffy Malt Whiskey Company" blown into the glass. The trademark—the Old Chemist's Head—is on the label, and over the cork there is an engraved paper seal. Be certain this seal is not broken.

REFUSE IMITATIONS AND SUBSTITUTES

When you ask for DUFFY'S PURE MALT WHISKEY be sure you get the genuine, which is the only absolutely pure malt whiskey containing medicinal, health-giving qualities. Imitations and substitutes, far from relieving the sick, are positively harmful. Demand DUFFY'S, and be sure you get it. Be on your guard against refilled bottles.

Duffy's Pure Malt Whiskey promotes health and longevity, KEEPS THE OLD YOUNG—THE YOUNG STRONG

It is the only whiskey recognized by doctors everywhere as a family medicine.

The genuine is sold by all reliable druggists, grocers and dealers, or direct, $1 a bottle. Write Dr. R. Curran, Consulting Physician, Duffy Malt Whiskey Co., Rochester, N. Y., for free illustrated medical booklet and free advice.
